

REFLECTIONS II: PHILOSOPHIES

AND THEY ALL LIVED HAPPILY EVER AFTER

Marcus Doel, University of Swansea

In this presentation I want to consider the fate of antagonism, hostility, and opposition in the history and philosophy of Geography, and to rekindle some of the animosity and enmity that once heralded the arrival of a host of disagreeable characters from yesteryear, such as my old chums Anti-humanism, Deconstruction, Postmodernism, and Poststructuralism.

40 Years of HPGRG – Looking back and looking forward
